

Warkworth Castle Class - Preschool

Sometimes I Feel Sunny by Gillian Shields and Georgie Birkett

Follow four loveable friends through their day, and explore the emotions that naturally occur in every young child's life. A brilliant way to soothe a bad mood and to explain that everyone feels strong emotions sometimes.

Alnwick Castle Class - Reception

Here We Are by Oliver Jeffers

Our world can be a bewildering place, especially if you've only just got here. Your head will be filled with questions, so let's explore what makes our planet and how we live on it. From land and sky, to people and time, these notes can be your guide and start you on your journey.

And you'll figure lots of things out for yourself. Just remember to leave notes for everyone else... Some things about our planet are pretty complicated, but things can be simple, too: you've just got to be kind.

Bamburgh Castle Class - Years 1 and 2

Ben's Magic Telescope by Brian Patten

A nine-year-old boy lives on the ninth floor of a high-rise tower block in a large, grim city. He hates it, but one day he discovers a small silver telescope that enables him to see the beauty in the world around him - from market stalls to the surface of the moon.

Ford Castle Class - Years 3 and 4

Leon and the Place Between by Angela McAllister

Wanting to prove to his brothers and sister that magic really exists, Leon volunteers to be in Abdul Kazam's magic show and gets transported to a mysterious world. Filled with rabbits, doves, playing cards and magician's assistants - among other things - if a magician can make it disappear, it will end up in the Place Between!

Etal Castle Class - Years 5 and 6

Do You Speak Chocolate? By Cas Lester

Jaz has found the best way to make friends with new girl Nadima- by offering her a chocolate bar. Nadima grins and offers back some Turkish Delight, and a special friendship begins...

Before long the girls are firm friends, even though Nadima, who recently arrived from Syria, can't speak much English. The path of true friendship doesn't run smooth, though... Jaz, ever the entrepreneur, cooks up a plan to sell Turkish Delight at school, with disastrous results. A drama project with Nadima about family history proves impossible to manage. And Charity Challenge Week puts the icing on the cake as Jaz puts every foot wrong possible. Can she find a way to put things right, and restore the wonderful and unique friendship that she has with Nadima?

In a story of friendship, family and entrepreneurial wizardry, Cas Lester deftly navigates the trials and tribulations of girlhood, and examines with the lightest of touches and gentle humour the thorny and compelling issues of integration, belonging and identity.
