Christmas Card Competition

Recently, every child in school created a picture that was shared with our local church. Once again, the church wardens at St John the Baptist, Alnmouth were challenged to choose a small number of pictures for their Christmas card. Our local church is always grateful for these beautiful images which will now be shared around the local community this Christmas.

"A special thanks to Margot, William, Callie, Erica, Florence and the pupils from Hipsburn Primary School for their designs."
